Mr. Prayal Dayel, Secretary,
Numismatic Society of India,
Provincial Museum,
Lucknow, India

Dear Sir:

I am herewith sending you my cheque on London for £ 2. This is to pay my subscription to the Society for the years 1926, 1927, 1928, 1929, and 1930. I note in the Proceedings that we can compound our dues for five years at £ 2. I suppose you can negotiate this cheque on London without trouble.

Very truly yours,

Curator

Dear Sir:

I am herewith enclosing six rupees to pay for my subscription for 1931 to the Numismatic Society of India. I will send six more ruppes shortly. The last number of the Numismatic Supplement that I have received is No. XLII. If any have been issued since then I would be very glad to receive it. I have just received the Proceedings of the annual meeting for 1931. I beg to remain,

Very truly yours,
